

Why is it happening?

Contributed by Administrator
Wednesday, 20 February 2008

Switchover makes it fairer for everyone. Currently, one in four UK homes cannot get digital TV via their aerial and many still cannot receive Five. Only by switching off the existing "analogue" broadcasting system is it possible to boost the digital signal and get it to parts of the country that can't currently receive it.